TOGETHER, WE MAKE A BETTER FUTURE

inspire+ is a PE, Sport and Education charity established in 2011. Since becoming a training provider in 2017, inspire+ has evolved into one of the country's largest PE and School Sport apprenticeship providers. As a charity, our quality of delivery is everything to us, and we are proud to be chosen by over 200 employers across the East of England.

We place employers' relationships as a fundamental part of the successful delivery of our education programmes.

This guide will give you the information you'll need when employing an inspire+ apprentice and help you throughout this journey with us.

CURRENT TRAINING LOCATIONS

Our apprenticeships are delivered in several cohort areas. We serve a large number of schools in the East of England and are proud to have localised apprenticeship training.

Every local cohort benefits from an inspire+ tutor who leads the apprentices, provides weekly training, visits their workplace, and works with employers to ensure the highest quality provision for both the apprentices and the employers.

BENEFITS

Advantages of employing an apprentice.

Government Funded

Apprenticeships allow employers to have a more skilled workforce by using government funding. Use this funding to hire someone new or to unlock the potential of a staff member.

Tailored to you

Training someone means you can tailor your workforce to your organisation's needs.

New Talents

Offering apprenticeships is a way to find the brightest new talents for your organisation. When partnering with us, we'll promote your vacancy and help you to attract the best candidates.

Our apprentice started wonderfully, her constant attitude towards her work is impeccable. She's always there to help or to support adults and staff whenever needed. She goes that extra mile to make sure that everything's done or children feel valued and safe. She's made some very close bonds with children that she works with with and they trust her. She constantly asks if there's anything she can do to help me or any other members of staff.

Charlie Peberday, PE Lead, White Woman Lane

FUNDING OPTIONS

The government apprenticeship levy is a tax paid by employers designed to help organisations offer more apprenticeships. It is stored in a fund which can be accessed to help pay for apprenticeship training costs.

APPRENTICESHIP LEVY

- The apprenticeship levy is applicable for those whose payroll is over £3 million.
- Its purpose is to finance apprenticeship training.
- Employers are charged at 0.5% of their total payroll as the apprenticeship levy allowance.
- It is collected monthly via PAYE.
- After 24 months any unused levy funds expire and return to the government.
- Employers who are not required to pay a levy may need to contribute 5% towards the cost of an apprenticeship course, while the government will provide the remaining 95% through a co-investment arrangement.
- The government also offers some incentives for organisations taking younger workers. Contact us to check the options available.

Apprenticeship Wage

Apprentices of any age in their first year of apprenticeship are entitled to a minimum hourly rate.

If they are 19 or over and have completed the first year of their apprenticeship, they are entitled to the National Minimum Wage according to their age.

For further information please contact a member of our team or visit:

OUR SUPPORT

We support employers throughout all apprenticeship stages. Our support is offered FREE OF CHARGE regardless of whether you successfully appoint someone or not.

Recruitment

We will provide everything you need to find the right candidate, including job specifications and descriptions, job adverts and interview format templates.

In addition, we'll help you to advertise the vacancy, gather candidates and filter CVs. Finally, we'll then recommend the best candidates for your organisation.

But remember, this is teamwork, and you'll need to support us in this process to guarantee you will find the best apprentice for your organisation.

Training

Before starting work, the apprentices participate in our Induction Week, which provides them with the essential information to begin their employment activities.

From there on, they will receive weekly training delivered by our dedicated cohort tutors with a mix of practical and theory lessons.

During this training, they will learn about safeguarding, first aid in education, professionalism in schools, team-building activities and everything they need to know to become a valuable member of staff. This gives the employers the opportunity to grow their own skilled staff.
